The Miracle of Springtime

The Bluebirds and the Wildflowers will soon be here to transform and beautify the dull earth and the Pastures will be sweet and green.

Presently a Bluebird will sing. Then there will be stirrings in the leaf mould in the woods—and Spring Beauties, Hepaticas and Dog-Tooth Violets will push their fragile blossoms through the water-soaked earth.

There will be long soft rains. At night the Green Frogs will peep in the Pools.

Cold Angle Worms will wiggle up through the clammy earth from their winter depths, and most likely be seized by the Robins.

A Boy will come whistling across the fields with a birch pole and a can of bait.

Spring lambs will bleat quaveringly in the Hill Pastures.

Young, tender grass will put forth in the Lowland Meadows.

Milk Cows will be turned out from a thousand stables to crop the young, succulent Herbage.

The sweet flavors of Spring will be imparted to the Milk.

It will be Richer and Sweeter.

The Cream will be Thicker and of that Golden Hue that only sweet abundant Pasture gives.

The Farmer's wife will scald the big Milk Cans. She and her servants will fill them daily with this rich spring milk.

The Farmer will take them to the station.

In a few hours they will be in our clean spotless Ice Cream plant.

In the evening you may have a Quart or a Brick of Golden Ice Cream for Dinner.

The scent of the new spring fields will arise from it and the flavor of the Sweet Country will linger on your palate.

But, for your own sake, be sure it's

The Cream of All Ice Creams

City News Notes

Chief Justice Edward D. White, of the Supreme Court, has reported to the police of the Third precinct that his Irish terrier has strayed away from his home, at 1717 Rhode Island avenue northwest.

Mark J. Thomas, fifty-nine years old, was taken sick at his home, 810 I street northwest, late yesterday afternoon, and died within a few minutes. Heart failure was the cause.

Seventeen dozen fresh eggs, a gold cross valued at $50 and $15 in cash were stolen from the home of Surg. Gen. P. M. Rixey, U. S. N., retired, 1515 K street northwest, Tuesday night. The thief upset every room in the house, but the articles named seemed the only ones which appealed to him as worth while.

A systematic attempt to organize social, economic, and educational forces will be made at the conference for education in Louisville, Ky., April 7, and has received the endorsement of Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education.

A rummage sale will be conducted for the Washington Eye, Ear, and Throat Hospital, April 6 to 11, at 1013 Four-and-a-half street southwest. Contributions will be received at 1227 Euclid street northwest and 1408 L street northwest. Mrs. J. C. Kondrup will have charge of the sale.

IN THE NEW MISSES' AND GIRLS' SECTION, The Largest and Best Displays of Beautiful New Wash Dresses

EXCEPTIONAL VALUES AT $3.95

If styles and materials in Girls' Dresses have ever been more beautiful and refined we do not remember having seen them. The presentations we now make exemplify all of the correct new ideas; the numerous pretty effects in collars, the soft frills and dainty color touches, the smart combining of fabrics, and the vast number of individual styles.

One style, of white linen, with wide belt, turn-back cuffs and collar with sailor back trimmed in rows of colored material, long-waisted effect, box plaits front and back. It may also be obtained in solid colors with collar and cuffs of white batiste. Maize, peach, and Copenhagen blue in sizes 6, 8, and 10 years.

Another model, in long-waisted pattern, has wide panel front and back and short set in sleeves. Three straps of the material running from back to front panels form a new and unusual belt that is extremely pretty. Colors, blue, peach, maize, rose, and brown; sizes 6, 8, and 10.

The "Little Miss Muffett" Dress—a truly picture book dress—with skirt and straps of linen, and blouse of finely tucked batiste. An extremely dainty dress that is delightfully simple and quaint.

"Florence Dombey" is a fitting name for another style which we show. Made after the pattern of the boys' Dombey Suit, and the effect is pretty and unusual. A straight skirt and waist, having kimono sleeves and panel front, are buttoned together with self-covered buttons. Blue, peach, rose, and brown are the colors; 6, 8, and 10 the sizes. Waist and skirt of same material, or waist of striped cotton crepe and linen skirt.
